

The individual sessions will take place on Thursdays
at Bouverie Court, Northampton NN4 7YD

7.30-9.30pm, on the following dates:

February 23rd

Interfaith dialogue: Do we still need it?

Introduced by Sean Oliver-Dee, Bishops Officer for Inter-religious issues, Associate Researcher: Inter-Religious Affairs, Office of the Archbishop of Canterbury's Representative to the E.U. & Associate Research Fellow, London School of Theology.

March 1st

The Right to Die: Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia

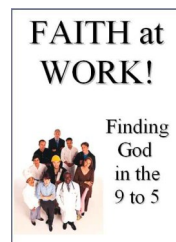

A recent report brought this subject back into the public spot-light.

Is it inevitable that it will be allowed?

Introduced by Revd Dr. John Smith.

March 29th

Faith at Work: Does God come to work with you?

We are called to be Christians 24/7, but how can we best do that?

The diocesan 'Faith at Work' group will lead this discussion
