

Multi-Church Ministry

How can this be a positive structure for the mission of the church today?

These well established and popular two day workshops address the most common issues that clergy face in this situation. Seven 90 minute sessions focus on appropriate and supported leadership, structures, effective mission and how to share ministry.

The workshop is facilitated by Jeremy Martineau and run via the office of the National Rural Officer at the Arthur Rank Centre, the churches national rural resources unit in Warwickshire. The workshop is held at Offa House near Leamington Spa.

Dates for forthcoming workshops are:

13 – 14 June 2012	£150
10 – 11 October 2012	£150

To reserve your place please complete the attached booking form and return with the non-returnable deposit of £20. Please make cheques payable to ACORA and send to the address below.
