

National Younger Leadership Groups 2024-25 – Action Needed.

We are excited to launch registration for this year's NYLG. We are following the same format as last year using your voice to enable flourishing. Excitingly this year, the group's voices/views, along with other young people, will feed into a least one item in the 2025 General Synod sessions. Schools from last year have already been invited to take part again.

Actions

- We'd like you to invite 3 of your primary schools, who you think would benefit to take part sending on the attached invitation and encouraging them to register by the 18th October.
- We'd love the schools chosen to reflect the diversity of the schools in your Diocese. Although the sessions only involve 4 pupils from each school, we had great stories last year of how the learning had been taken into a wider school context.
- Encourage them to partner with their local church, inviting a guest, e.g. member of clergy, youth worker in to help facilitate the sessions in school with pupils.

The attached invitation explains about NYLG in more detail. The link for registration is on the invitation but for ease is here: 2024-25 National Younger Leadership Groups Sign Up \(tfaforms.net\)

Last year, the following schools took part from your Diocese:

Flore CE Primary School
 Hayfield Cross Church of England School
 Monksmoor Park CE Primary School
 Naseby C of E Primary Academy
 St James CE Primary School
 The Rutland Learning Trust
 Towcester CE Primary School
 Woodford CE Primary School

Free Advent Resource

Just advance warning that we are partnering again with the National CE campaign for Advent and will have a brand new collective worship resource ready for schools at the beginning of October. The theme is Follow the Star, Calm and Bright. I'll send across further details at the end of this month for how schools can register and get involved.
