

Gala Evening at Noseley,

(LE7 9EH, near Billesdon, Leics)

Saturday 25th September 2021

All proceeds in support of Launde Abbey's post-pandemic recovery

All the costs of the evening have been generously donated.

Noseley's Medieval Chapel is a large and remarkable building but is rarely open to the public.

6pm Drinks reception on the lawn, weather permitting accompanied by J for Jazz performing in the Marquee

J is a vocalist who has been performing jazz standards and pop tunes at private events for over a decade

CONCERT PROGRAMME

Mozart Oboe Quartet, Piazzola Oboe Quartet, and Folk songs from around the world

MUSICIANS: Four professional artists who are well known to concert audiences in the UK.

Catriona Lockhart - oboe, a young oboist of great talent, who has appeared in the most prestigious concert halls with today's top conductors.

Rebecca Hirsch - violin, well known for her unique recordings as a soloist in late romantic and modern classical concerti.

Clare Finnimore - viola, principal viola player in Britten Sinfonia and a superb chamber musician

Caroline Dearnley - cello, principal cellist in Britten Sinfonia and well known in the film session scene, a legend in her own lifetime

7.15 to 7.45pm CONCERT - FIRST HALF

Supper, with wine, in the Marquee

Including vegetarian option

8.45 to 9.30pm CONCERT - SECOND HALF